

ECHO FOR REGION 4 READINESS

Preparedness for High-Consequence Biologic Events 3: Waste Reduction, Storage, & Removal

MODERATOR

Colleen Kraft, MD, MSc
Medical Director
Emory University Serious
Communicable Diseases Unit

SPEAKER

Jill Morgan, BSN, RN
Site Manager
Emory University Serious
Communicable Diseases Unit

SPEAKER

Brooke Brewer, BSN, RN, MS, CIC
Program Manager, Infection Prevention
Special Pathogens Response Center
UNC Health

SPEAKER

Cara Simaga, CHMM
Senior Director, Regulatory Affairs
Stericycle

April 22, 2026

11:00 – 12:00 pm ET

QR Code & Link to Register:

<https://iecho.org/public/program/PRGM176522796314220NV162LP6>

Session Objective

Participants will learn how to safely and compliantly manage regulated medical waste during high-consequence biologic events, including regulatory requirements, waste minimization strategies, and best practices for segregation, storage, and internal transport.

For more information about this ECHO session or program, email srdrs@emory.edu

Visit <https://scdp.emory.edu/>

Visit <https://srdrs4.org>

In Partnership with The ECHO Institute