

ECHO FOR REGION 4 READINESS

Acute Care Planning for HCIDs: Diagnostic and Testing Considerations

MODERATOR

Gavin Harris, MD

Director of Education & Outreach
Emory University
Serious Communicable Diseases Program
(SCDP)

SPEAKER

Vicki Herrera, MS

Research Coordinator,
Pathology, Microbiology & Immunology
Training & Education Coordinator,
Nebraska Biocontainment Unit Laboratory
Laboratory Workgroup Co-Chair,
National Emerging Special Pathogens Training &
Education Center (NETEC)

SPEAKER

Crystal Evans

Technical specialist II
Interim Serious Communicable Disease
Unit (SCDU) Laboratory Lead
Emory Healthcare Medical Laboratories

August 20, 2026

11:00 am – 12:00 pm ET

QR Code & Link to Register:

<https://iecho.org/public/program/PRGM176522796314220NV162LP6>

Session Objectives:

1. Describe key diagnostic and testing considerations for suspected HCID patients in acute care settings.
2. Identify planning strategies for safe specimen collection, handling, and coordination with laboratory partners.
3. Discuss approaches for aligning clinical, laboratory, infection prevention, and public health workflows during HCID evaluations.

For more information about this ECHO session or program, email
srdrs@emory.edu

Visit <https://scdp.emory.edu/>

Visit <https://srdrs4.org>

In Partnership with The ECHO Institute